

Victoria Hall Disaster – List of Victims.

Appendix.

The following list of victims is taken from Sunderland Weekly Echo, Friday 22 June 1883. As published, the list named victims who lived in Monkwearmouth, identified as Numbers 1 through to 32, and those who lived in Sunderland and Bishopwearmouth, identified as Numbers 33 through to 182. The following is that list re-arranged in alphabetical order together with the names of other victims (in red) who were listed in earlier editions of the paper as having also been buried.

Notes.

1. Son and daughter of Dr Allen., their graves are near to the two chapels in the cemetery.
2. Andrew Coupland is not included in the list of 182 victims, however he is named as being the first victim to be buried at Sunderland Cemetery on Tuesday 19th June.
3. Two cousins.
4. They were half brothers and were interred together.
5. The burial arranged for the previous day but could not take place due to a shortage of conveyances.
6. Address also given as Christopher Street.
7. Buried with infant brother who had died since the disaster from consumption.
8. Elizabeth Wanless is included in the list of victims from Monkwearmouth, however the Sunderland Weekly Echo for Friday 22nd June reports that she was the first burial at Bishopwearmouth Cemetery on Tuesday 19th June. If this is correct then the numbers buried at Mere Knolls Cemetery may be 30 rather than 31.
9. unconsecrated common grave number 294 – possibly in Ward 16.
10. Catherine Middlemiss Richmond
11. Amy Hollings Lancaster Watson
12. Annie Emily Holings Watson

Included in the list of burials in SDE for Thursday 21st June as having been buried at BW On 20th June.

 Names not included in the Genuki list.

Those killed in the disaster were buried during the days of the following week at:
